

- 6 Variables x and y are related by the equation $y = p - qx$ where p and q are constants. Values of x and y are measured experimentally. The results contain a systematic error. Which graph best represents these results?

Space for working