

- 25 The data given below refers to money supply and prices in the years 2001 and 2004 in four countries A, B, C and D.

Between 2001 and 2004, in which country was the rate of inflation the highest?

	2001		2004
	money supply ($ million)	price index (2000 = 100)	money supply ($ million)	price index (2000 = 100)
A	69	104	78	153
B	65	112	120	247
C	70	101	213	157
D	172	105	360	210

- 26 A government announces that it has achieved its target of 2.5 % inflation per annum and that it expects to maintain it.

How might such an announcement reduce inflationary pressure?

- A by encouraging the government to reduce its spending
 - B by putting downward pressure on the country's exchange rate
 - C by putting pressure on the central bank to reduce interest rates
 - D by reducing workers' expectations of future inflation
- 27 A Japanese company builds a factory in the UK to supply both the UK market and the market in the rest of Europe.

What is likely to be the long-run impact on the UK's balance of trade in goods and on its current balance?

	balance of trade in goods	current balance
A	worsen	uncertain
B	worsen	improve
C	improve	uncertain
D	improve	improve