

30 A country has a current account deficit.

Which component of its current account balance will be made less favourable as a direct result of a decision by the central bank to increase interest rates?

- A net investment income
- B net current transfers
- C the balance of trade in goods
- D the balance of trade in services