

- 8 The first term of a progression is $4x$ and the second term is x^2 .
- (i) For the case where the progression is arithmetic with a common difference of 12, find the possible values of x and the corresponding values of the third term. [4]
- (ii) For the case where the progression is geometric with a sum to infinity of 8, find the third term. [4]