- 14 What is an example of an externality?
 - A Production of good X directly affects the cost of producing good Y.
 - B The entry of a new firm reduces the profits of existing firms producing good X.
 - C The introduction of bus-only lanes reduces the travel times of bus passengers.
 - D The opening of a new underground railway reduces the revenue of bus operators.
- 15 The table gives the estimated costs and benefits of a proposed new leisure complex.

	$000s
private benefits	120
external benefits	80
private costs	140
external costs	20

What is the estimated value of the social benefits of the project?

- A $40000
- B $60000
- C $80 000
- D $200000
- 16 The production of what is most likely to require a government cost-benefit analysis?
 - A houses
 - B medicines
 - C roads
 - D schools
- 17 A national museum charges an entry fee for admission.

Which combination of rival and excludable qualities would apply to visits to the national museum on a day when there are very few visitors?

	rival	excludable
Α	no	no
В	no	yes
С	yes	no
D	yes	yes