4 A curve has equation $y = 3x^2 - 4x + 4$ and a straight line has equation $y = mx + m - 1$, where m is a constant.

Find the set of values of m for which the curve and the line have two distinct points of intersection.

[5]

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....

....