5 A light-meter measures the intensity I of the light falling on it. Theory suggests that I varies inversely as the square of the distance d.
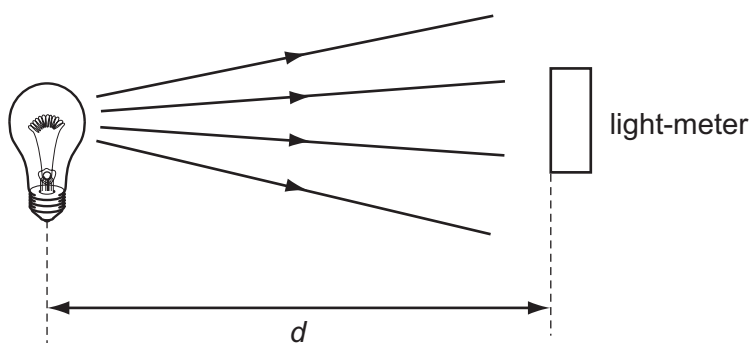

Which graph of the results supports this theory?

Space for working